ELCHANETTE '57

YESHIVA UNIVERSITY
HIGH SCHOOL FOR GIRLS

2301 SNYDER AVENUE, BROOKLYN 26, NEW YORK

Peace.

*A longed for, hoped for, cherished state of being,
To live and breathe, among free men to be free,
A ray of sunshine behind dusky clouds of trouble,
Come to dispel the fears of years gone by,
A magic flame of fire once more rekindled,
Nourished onward through the bellows of our hearts,
Our dedication, our great life-long ambition.
To realize peace, a golden dream fulfilled.*

ARISTA

Arista, Central's honor society, instituted a new method of admittance this year. This new program differs from the old in that Arista chooses its members instead of accepting applications submitted by the girls. To be considered for Arista membership a girl must have a high scholastic average in addition to a certain amount of service, and she must be of fine character.

Sally Tropper, President of Arista, and Judy Preiser, Vice President, aided by Mr. Martin Lilker, Arista Adviser, coordinated Arista's activities.

Noted among Arista's accomplishments this year was the posting of Arista members in the classrooms to lead the morning davening. Hebrew proverbs have been posted by the Arista members throughout the school. The tutoring agency, long established by Arista, continues to assist those girls requesting aid.

BASKETBALL

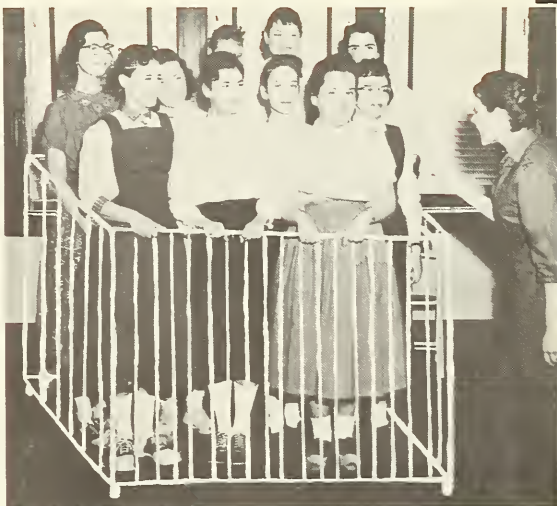

Central's Basketball Team has gained the distinction of being the best dressed team in the League. An industrious group, they are known for their lively spirit. Under the leadership of Harriet Wagh, Athletic Manager and Blumi Wolf, Assistant, the schedule of games has been enlarged and the attendance increased.

Row 1: S. Rozman, N. Baumol, R. Frankel.
 Row 2: R. Taubenblatt, J. Landau, A. Silver,
 G. Miller, D. Brand. At right: D. Geld

BABY-SITTING AGENCY

Yes! That's right! Every girl belonging to the Baby-sitting Agency, headed by Dora Geld, is worthy of a blue ribbon. Known for her courtesy and cooperation, she is a joy to the busy mother. Her expert handling of worried mothers and mischievous children is really something to see. They are doing a truly professional job.

BOOKROOM

Schwitzer sisters stack stock . . .

CHANUKA CHAGIGA

Our annual Chanuka Chagiga proved, as always, to be a huge success. We received a hearty welcome from Chani Deutsch, our Mistress of Ceremonies. Upon completion of the preliminary ceremonies by Rabbi Friedman, a group of hungry young ladies dug into a delicious, tempting meal served by Central's own attractive waitresses.

After the grammen by Rabbi Perlman and an extemporaneous one by some seniors, the program concluded. We have Judy Lando and Claire Langner to thank for the wonderful time that was had by all.

CHAGIM COMMITTEE

The Chagim Committee recently formed under the able leadership of Dinah Goldman accomplished one great task . . . it added much to the religious spirit in our Yeshiva. Signs with the Hebrew dates on them were placed in every room. The committee has also published bulletins for every chag and taanit to supplement our knowledge of the laws and customs of our people.

CHALIL CLUB

Future Satchmos . . .

A. Brafman, T. Dyckman, S. Rosenbaum, S. Lipnick, L. Silver, J. Eiselman, T. Rosen

When time out sounds at a game and tension is high, Central's pride, her Cheering Squad, ably led by Shuly Rosenbaum, encourages the team on to victory. A picture in blue and white, their enthusiasm and vivacity enliven every game.

CHEERING

CHESS

CO-OP

The co-op, operated entirely for the benefit of the student body, is managed by Helen Stein and Cynthia Weisbrod. Everything from school supplies to Central sweaters are sold, and all at reduced rates.

C. Weisbrod, H. Stein, H. Stitz

CHOIR

To thee we sing, Central. . .

Foreground: R. Teitz, A. Rubin. Seated: G. Wallin, H. Auerbach, B. Baruch, R. Gellis, L. Silver, H. Pflanzner, F. Witztum, C. Reisman, L. Backman, C. Weisbrod, S. Serchuk, J. Cohen. Standing: C. Abromowitz, R. Fogel, D. Chill, G. Miller

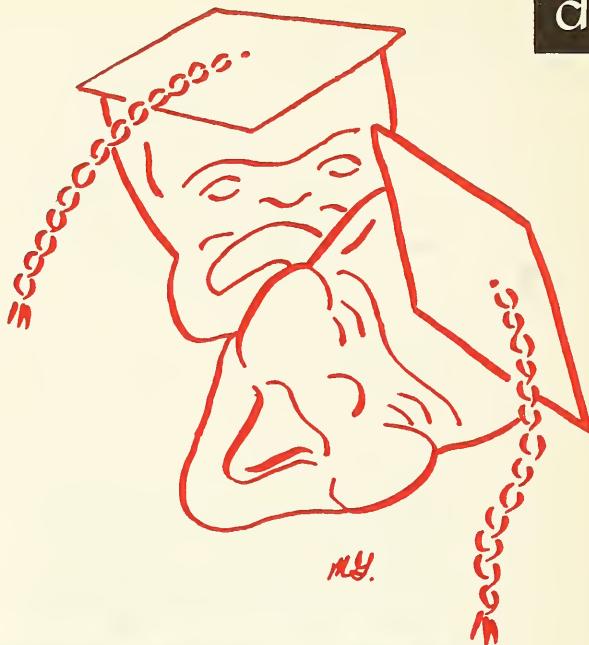

DEBATING

The Debating Team, one of Central's most important extra-curricular groups, actively debates many schools among which are Brooklyn and Uptown T.A., Ramaz, H.I.L.I., and Flatbush Yeshiva. The team, with Anita Rubin as debating manager and Ivan Serchuk as coach, spends much time in preparation for each debate. Constant practice and inter-team debates keep the girls on their toes. Their 5 victories out of 6 debates is veritable proof of their skill.

DRAMATICS

Through self-expression and various character portrayals, the girls of the Dramatics Society have greatly improved their acting ability. Constructive criticism offered by Mr. Ravetch, faculty adviser, was very helpful in perfecting their talents. Under his direction and that of Sherry Reisman, leader of the group, "Little Women" was performed at the Chanuka Chagiga. The Dramatics Society also serves as an aid in cultivating poise and grace.

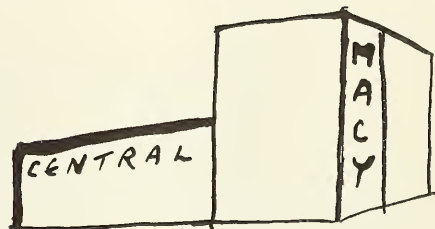

Diary

FRESHMEN DIARY

Entrance exam must have been a cinch 'cause here we are Freshmen and raring to go . . . We meet the teachers—what a motley crew!! . . . A young looking Rabbi Adler delivers his typewritten inaugural address...Crown Heights girls give us complexes with knowledge of esoteric irrelevant subjects—Trie Asar, Sh'alonim, to mention a few . . . We're under the impression that Macy's is an annex to Central. Bought so many "BARGAINS" that we haven't got any milk money left . . . New party game introduced: "Fill the Bottle"!! . . . Dim, dim the lights—we need some atmosphere. Take the hand of the one next to you. The scene is set, the lights are low—Debby swoons—"Big black bucks in a wine barrel room"—He was doing the Mambo Jambo . . . Certain P.C.'s get season's passes to Al Roon's Cabana Club while others are docked. We go diving in knee-deep water.

Lose more classmates that way . . . We have Oneg Shabbat parties Monday through Friday. Ravetch throws these shindigs with our hard earned milk money . . . Can't smuggle nasherye into Kallner's lab, without knowing the pass word — Borei Nefashot . . . Thump thump thump— Iris is on the warpath—she beats her way through the Modern Dance . . . Blue Monday!! Rabbi Friedman and Iris are blue when some of us go to see "The Moon Is Blue." We—are black and blue!! . . . Judy Cohen and Ethel Dworetsky find police list of jernts in the neighborhood. These innocents return this hot list to the cops immediately . . . Kallner breaks his arm—We're a pain but don't blame us for this bit of mischief. Yippee?? We are blessed with Lilker for two weeks . . . To market, to market to buy a piece of Brazil—Eco. Geo. with Mrs. Jaffee . . . Dr. Lewin please don't bang-a on the desk . . . Did you hear the story of the fox and the crow?

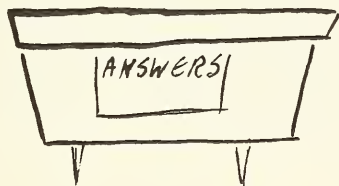

If you have a few hours we'll relate it to you. Maitre Freidman sur une pupitre perché tenèt en son bec un bottle de coke. For those who didn't get the last phrase here's French on one foot—Gai avec un fils . . . La Cucaracha: we spot our first cockroach in the basement! We are doing the Cucaracha when a real one passed us by . . . Im Yirtzeh Hashem ba dir—Mazel tov! Marty and Teddy finally take the plunge and make a trip to Niagara Falls—together . . . “The Answer Man” is taken off the air and pasted onto Ravetch’s desk. Leah Edelstein and Ethel Stolnitz get quite a kick out of this adventure, we mean it literally! . . . Chanuka rolls around and we decide to buy Kallner a practical gift. A sign reading “Why Be Mean When With a Little Effort You Can Be a Real Stinker.” Teddy reciprocates in kind, “The Reason a Dog Has So Many Friends is He Wags His Tail Instead of His Tongue.” . . . Dum de dum dum . . . Friday 11:02 A.M. — Room 22 — Mr. Ravetch is accused of petty larceny—After a prolonged investigation his name is cleared. What would he want with Hinda’s ring anyway? . . . “Our Freshman Sing we now will start, we’re going to rip those others apart”—and we did!...Phew! Finals are over and we’re still alive and kicking.

Exams must have been easy cause here we are Sophomores and raring . . . The little red school-house around the corner is now occupied. Have given up the trips to Macy’s in favor of a walk around the block. Somebody must have a letter to mail in the P.O. please? May I walk with you?? Please!! . . . Ravetch sticks Gramma Gertin’s Needle into Ralph Royster Doyster. Mrs. Green, in the nick of time, comes to the rescue with her pressure points . . . Bassell gets engaged. Before we can say Mazel Tov he’s married—the beginning of the end for Bachelors, Inc. . . . Our first theater party is a smashing success. All frustrated Sophomores are encouraged to do “bigger and better” things . . . Dr. Lewin and Rabbi Adler go abroad and we’re left unsupervised. Our principal returns much the same; Rabbi Adler smuggles through customs—an imported beard . . . I was sure my locker was here this morning . . . Col. (Marlon Brando) Bernstein appears on the scene. An eligible bachelor but not for long. His casual invitation to an open house knocks his house open . . . Art for the masses is the slogan for Sophs. We dabble and babble in paints for Mrs. Lobell . . . Central goes Ivy League when Yale appears. Poison Ivy—or was it Yma Sumac? He asks to see our emotions on paper and violently expresses his when the slides disappear . . . We emerge from our dark dreary basement gym to make quite a hit on Whitman's handball court! . . . Kallner teaches us reproduction in Bio. and boldly states: "Don't be ashamed. If you have any questions ask MY MOTHER." . . . An unesthetic Leah Backman turns Bohemian as she addresses Ravetch's English class barefooted. Unfortunately she is carried away by the men in the little white suits —Oops! It's Mrs. Green's first aid class . . . SPRING IS HERE! Our Lag B'Omer outing takes us to the wilds of Alley Pond Park for a change in the scenery. Much to our surprise we meet our next door neighbors. Isn't it a small world? The bus drivers think we came to stay and forget to pick us up. We return home late, windburned, sunburned, and frostbitten . . . "Comedy in Music" is the next stop on our Broadway circuit. We spend all our hot chocolate money for tickets close to G-D. Backstage we meet the star. We were thrilled by Victor and licked by Lamour . . . Pearl Pardes daintily trips into the garbage pail upon leaving a stimulating lecture . . . Central's Sanitation Squad gets splinters in their hinters as they wash the floors to help Jimmy . . . Calisthenics with Mrs. Feuer. She tells us to stand on our toes but the ceiling gets in the way. Lose more students that way... We visit juvenile courts and find out we're not as delinquent as Rabbi Friedman thinks . . . You can get in the pink with Grossman by not wearing red . . . Argyle Joe Kaplan is removed from his post for corrupting Central's debaters. So long Joe—hello Ivan! . . . Shocked Sophs steal Sing . . . We quiver at the thought of three Regents. Imagine—nine whole hours at Y.U.! . . . We're still alive.

JUNIOR DIARY

Regents must have been a cinch 'cause here we are Juniors and rare . . . This is the year we take Chem, third year language, and Jewish Ethics for BEGINNERS . . . First week of Chem—six nuclear fallouts (it seems that Vivian is positively charged and will not leave Kallner's side) . . . We finish Chem 1 with flying colors in Home Economics. We are now experts at washing coffee pots . . . Get exceptionally low marks on one of Mrs. Feuer's infrequent French quizzes. Told to see the Rabbi immediately to redeem them, we finally see him at the end of the term . . . Dramatics with Mr. Horn produces great thespians. We are so enraptured that we plan a creative production; "Dear Ruth." Lights, camera, cast—but no rehearsals. End of production . . . Tests are postponed due to "gay blades" at the Ice Rink. We collect stubs for Ravetch to prove our unfailing Wednesday night attendance—and spend all our coffee money . . . Horn, head of the Tweed Ring, dresses discriminately. Tweed jacket, tweed pants, tweed socks, tweed shoe laces, leather bow tie and yarmulka . . . Our tears turn into icicles, our fingers are numb, our breath forms heavy mist in the cold air, we take notes with gloves on, teachers sit with earmuffs and mufflers. When we complain to Rabbi Friedman about the situation he replies: "Cold? It's all in the mind." . . . Mrs. Tessel's Sten Class has an adventure. The door jams and we are imprisoned. Plans are made to spend the night camping out on the floor. Mike comes to the rescue, however, with his handy tools . . . After a year of the birds and the bees with Kallner we start on humans with Dr. Jofen . . . There is a big turnover in students. Tirzah comes to us from California and Debby Marton leaves to take her place there . . . Our beloved Roz keeps pushing her chair further and further away from the desk. We wonder why? . . . The impossible happens—Lilker gets married, and to a former Central girl no less! The irony of life!—Maybe Central girls have more oomph than we thought . . . We are captivated by the Chanuka spirit and initiate Dreidel Day. We lose more pennies that way . . . The first "Sweet Sixteen" is thrilling. By the 64th we're old hands at the "blowing out the candles" bit. We send out thousands of invitations and receive one RSVP—from a girl no less. We become Sweet Sixtiesh gray!...To "Aizeh Min Chuzpah" we add Be Va Ka' sha...A magnificent play, "The Diary of Anne Frank" illuminates the dreary winter. We leave the theater in tears . . . Mrs. Feuer and Mr. Annenberg exchange first anniversary gifts—paper. However, Mme. Feuer does not appreciate the present. . . . A pitgam a day, keeps the doctor away—that's Linick's motto. . . . Mr. Kallner complains about our smelly boots and so we go shopping for mink lined perfumed models . . . Ravetch teaches us the history of the drama for the third time. This is getting monotonous! . . . The crossword craze begins and reaches a fevered pitch. This is just a sample of what's to come . . . Ravetch assures us that the Prologue to the Canterbury Tales in Middle English will be our key to popularity. Come to think of it the boys did stop and stare when we started to recite: "Wan that Aprille." . . . We separate the Baale Boosters from the Geruteners. You either knit your own argyles or (alas to the untalented) buy them at Macy's. The girls invade B.T.A. en masse for the Chanuka Chagiga. Cynthia Weisbrod is the (able to make them laugh) M. C. . . . We come to finals in jeans and Rabbi Friedman gallantly shows us the door. Judy Cohen runs to Lynn's and borrows a skirt for a short while . . . We auction off everything including our teacher's hat for Arms for Israel Drive, but the teacher doesn't appreciate our charitable nature. Teachers chicken out at our Purim Carnival Sponge Booth. What drips! . . . This is the first year we take Regents at home. Such a disappointment, half the fun is gone! . . . This year we get more for our money — 4 great big economy size Regents . . .

SENIOR DIARY

Regents must have been a breeze 'cause here we are Seniors and ra!! . . . The year starts off with one long final which continues through June. We take time off, however, for midterms. Isn't it fun being Seniors?! . . . Of course we become inflicted with a severe case of Senioritis. The teachers help to aggravate our condition . . . Bassell announces his plan of attack in the beginning of Scholarship and tells us what an advanced course we're taking. It was so advanced that we never caught up with it . . . Did you know that Marat was butchered in his bathtub, or of the seven dating stages of man? . . . To speed up our circulation without the use of hot air, Lilker takes us for a run up the down staircase and down the up staircase with buddies . . .

*Listen my children and you shall hear
Of the daring Seniors and their lack of fear.
Weary of school and chilled to the bone
The Seniors calmly decide to go home.
Down the back staircase and through the door
They cautiously sneak out by the score.
The phone rings to give the Rabbi the news*

*He patiently listens and then blows a fuse.
Two to the movies, two to the show
Two to the library, they go, go, go.
Come on right back, Dr. Lewin cries
And then through the city ring out our sad sighs.
Threatened with punishment we trudge back to school,*

This is the moral: Isn't life cruel?
English with Mr. Bassell: "Have confidence in me!" To prevent us from getting measles he opens the windows and we get pneumonia instead . . .

Every day is a bargain day with Hoffman. Lowest marks in town . . . Dr. Beigleman introduces us to a new brand of Hebrew: Ratzionalismus, Pseudo Classissmus, and Klupshtok a la Kreminitz . . . We have reached the Major League: Weinstein labels us "Bechina Dodgers." . . . Certain Central Seniors (names withheld to protect the guilty) turn to vandalism at the Chanuka Chagiga, while the "youngsters" enjoy the good show emceed by Chani Deutsch . . . Spin picks a winner and gives maaser to the Elchanette. Every dollar helps . . .
Love is a many splendored thing. Ethel Dworet-sky starts the ball rolling and gets engaged. We hope this develops into something catching. Ah me! Only 63 more to go . . . Dogs trail Seniors to school the day they bring chickens to be koshered

—sutures, shmutures, there's nothing like hands!
. . . Dr. Lichtenstein gives us a short quiz on 2,000 years of Jewish History . . . Kussin vies with Methuselah to gain the title of "World's Oldest Man." . . . Mrs. Tessel's new shoes leave her with an Achilles heel° (refer to Bullfinch's Mythology)
. . . We talk Dr. Jofen into giving up a Yiddish lesson to discuss more important matters—BOYS
. . . Mazel Tov to Rabbi Perlman. He breaks up Bachelors Inc. He found a sabra in the midst of the American desert . . . The assembly line is introduced to Central when we package Tu B'shvat bags. Our speed and efficiency is hampered by Debby Cohen's fall to the floor while in a fit of laughter . . . We suffer a case of indigestion and acid stomach after a day of cookie sales. Anything for the cause of charity—even spend our beer money . . . Mr. Lilker turns 21+ and we celebrate with a birthday party. He distrusts our good intentions and insists on teaching for half the period
. . . In a fit of anger Rabbi Rabinowitz pounds on the table and causes the foundation to shift . . .

Our Scholarship winners "Break the Bank" at Albany and make us very proud . . . Five, four, three, two, one more days of school . . . Finals,
Regents, Graduation—worldly Central alumnae...

GENERAL ORGANIZATION

The life-blood of our school, the G.O., is the student operated body which supplies and coordinates an abundance of extra-curricular activities. In short, its aim is to make the students' stay at Central a happy one. The G.O. provides many enjoyable functions and sponsors committees for the students' benefit.

In addition to clubs, the G.O. arranges many entertaining and interesting assemblies. Among this year's best were the "Big and Little Sister" Assembly and the Vocational Guidance Assembly on Social Service.

Since our school is continually growing, additional activities are needed to accommodate these girls eager to perform some service. One of the newest commissions is the Publicity Commission which was successfully launched by Cecile Baer. It is doing a wonderful job publicizing all school activities and functions.

Other G.O. activities are the annual Chanuka Chagiga, Purim Carnival, Theatre Party, Lag B'Omer outing, and Sing.

Top Brass in the G.O. are Ethel Stolnitz—President, Judy Cohen—Vice President, Leah Edelstein—Secretary, and Judy Tabory—Treasurer. Miss Hadassa Lichtenstein serves as G.O. faculty adviser.

MURIEL ABOFF

Malki, Editor-in-Chief of the Elchanette not only excelled in English and Hebrew studies but in "Social" studies as well. Our daily commuter from New Jersey, she brought the latest news from the country. We wish her a wonderful "life."

דברי חסמים בנות נשפעים. (קהלת ט')

LEAH BACKMAN

A sparkling personality and a wonderful sense of humor made Leah the live-wire of the Senior Class. As Business Manager of the Elchanette she kept as good a record of the checks from the mail as of checked males.

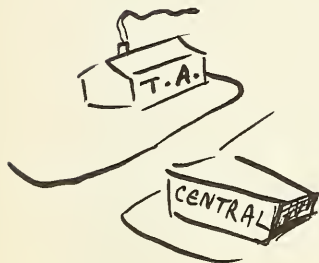

אם לא תרוץ לא תגיע. ואם לא תבקש לא תמצא. (בן סירה י"א)

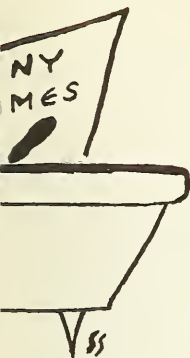

RHODA BERKOWITZ

Blessed with a "permanent" permanent, Rhoda was the first to have a poodle cut. Gracious and considerate, she was always willing to aid a friend.

אין טוב מאשר ישוע אדם כפושטו כי הוא חלקי (קהלת ג').

ATARA BIN-NUN

Atara, well equipped with a sunny personality, was the perfect choice as head of the Bikur Cholim Committee. "Crowned" with golden hair, she is assured of a golden future.

יעשרת תפארת בראשך (יחזקאל ב"ג)

DVORA BRAND

Always buy a "Brand" name . . . Anyone for Debbie? A whiz of a librarian, her speediness in typing and her personality will lead Debbie to fame.

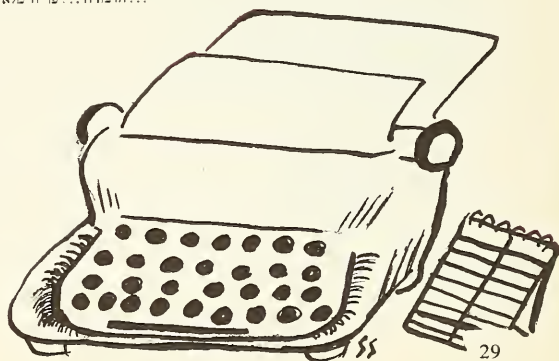

...הדבורה... פריה מלא בתך (כן בירא י"א)

DEBBY COHEN

Debby kept us awake in all our classes by being a first-rate comedienne. Like father like daughter, she was outstanding in all her Hebrew subjects. We're sure that Debby will follow through with Mr. Ravetch's expectations . . . immediately if not sooner.

שפתי בתן ישפרו דעת (בלאבי ב')

JUDITH COHEN

Our up-and-coming lawyer will inevitably win all her cases. Judy, our G.O. Veep, is endowed with personality-plus and brains to match. In scholarship Mr. Bassell knew all the questions, but Judy topped him by knowing all the answers.

כתבים ורדיון הם (שבת כ')

CHANI DEUTSCH

A very jolly person who sang her way through Central with the "Ugly Duckling," Chani will bring her talent to Julliard. Her ability was apparent as M.C. of the Chanuka Chagiga, and leader of the Choir.

זמר בכל יום, זמר בכל יום (סנהדרין צ"ם)

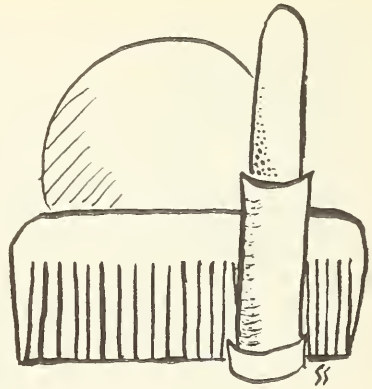

ETHEL DWORETSKY

Ethel, Photography Editor of the Elchanette will soon be photographed as a beautiful bride. Her slim silhouette, charming ways, "peace"ful and mature attitude made her an asset to the Senior Class.

אשרי תמימי דרך החולקים בתורת ה' (תהלים קי"ב)

LEAH EDELSTEIN

Though absent during elections, Leah's sparkling personality led her on to victory as Secretary of the G.O. Proficient in math and science, the mirror proved beyond a shadow of a doubt that her mind may easily turn to thoughts other than Calculus.

על רחמי יאמן שיפיע וכל מעשר בשר נחמדים (אבות ב')

GRACE EPSTEIN

Calling all interns! Calling all interns! Be on the alert! Central's future Miss Nightingale is on her way. Her "grace" and winsome personality will cause quick recoveries and even quicker relapses.

הנשים החכמיות הן (בנייה יחד)

TOBY FARKASH

Although she has many lovely charms, Toby's most precious possession is her Penny from heaven. May her future be very shiny.

טובה — בשמחה בן היא (על פי שמואל סהר)

ROSLYN FOGEL

A strong advocate of women's rights for Mincha, Roz always looked as if she stepped out of the pages of Seventeen. Sugar and spice and everything nice, that's what this little girl is made of.

עז והדר לבושה (משלי ל"א)

EDITH FRIEDMAN

This aw"Phil"ly happy miss is on her way to becoming a lawyer. She diligently read the Times and adequately contributed answers to the crossword puzzles.

איננוי דרך ישרה שידבק בה אדם?
... ר' אלעזר אומר לב טוב (אבות ב')

HELEN GARFINKEL

Helen's pleasing personality, quick smile, and helpfulness made her a friend to all. A natural sense of rhythm, singing, and dancing all added up, make her one big bundle of versatility.

בדאי הוא ... לסמוך עליו בשעת הדחק (ברכות ט') my.

ROSA GLUCK

Shoshana, a "glick" to the Basketball Team, bounces her way into everyone's heart with her radiant personality. Her understanding includes that of French, Spanish, Jewish, Hebrew and . . . people.

בשושנה בין החברים . . . (שיר השירים ב')

ESTHER MIRIAM GOLDBERG

A sincere girl, Esther earnestly tried to correct many of our faults. A fine Math scholar, she is a "Malcah" in the true sense of the word.

פני ירכי שוין (פסוקים ט"ג)

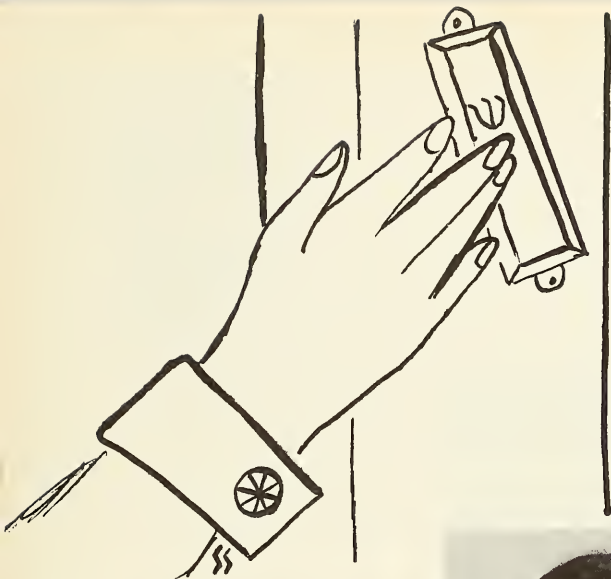

SYMA GOLDENBERG

Demure and softspoken, Syma could always be depended upon to do an excellent job. Her wealth of experience proved an asset as head of the Charity Drive. She is capable . . . likable . . . wonderful.

רבים . . . דורשי שוין (יבמות ט"ג)

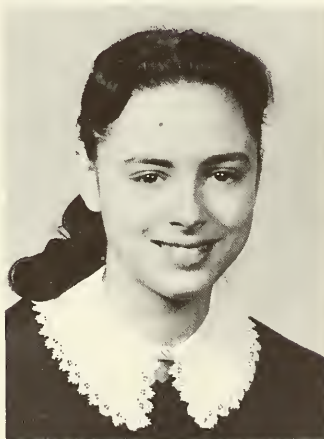

MIRIAM NAOMI GOLDINER

As an Art Editor of the Elchanette, Miriam tackled the problem of contour drawings with gusto. Possessed with dancing eyes and a pixie-like air, she was a delight to the Senior Council.

אמן וכלי אמנות בידיו (אבות דרבי נתן כ"ב)

DINAH GOLDMAN

Dinah, head of the newborn Chagim Committee, had the perfect formula for its success. Her idealistic but practical nature will make her a perfect Aishes Chayil.

נר לרגלה דבר ה' ואור לנתיבותיה
(על פי תהלים קים ק"ה)

ROCHELLE GOTTLIEB

This girl comedienne sent all the teachers to . . . Bellevue. We all envy the package sent the Gottliebs by the stork . . . A boy! They finally got tired of pink!

קשה לכעוס ונוח לרצות (אבות ה')

TAMAR LYNN HOROWITZ

As graceful as a Tamar, this sylph enticed us all with her lovely dancing. Tami, who wants to be a librarian, could fill a library with all the books she has read.

(זאת קומתך דמתה לתמר (שיר השירים ז')

ALIZAH ISAKOF

An ardent member of Bnei Akiva, Alizah personifies the happiness suggested in her name. During her two years at Central she became known as an excellent leader of the Hebrew Dancing Club.

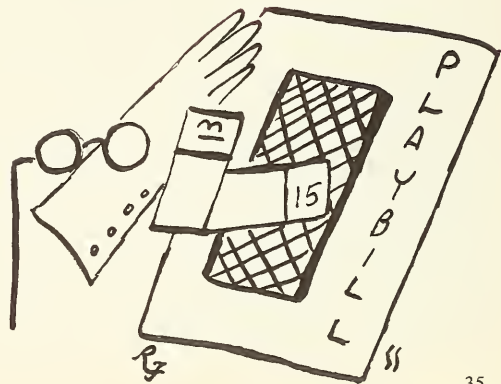

ותצאנה כל הנשים אחריה בתפיש ובמהוללות
(שמות ט"ז)

VIVIAN JACOBS

An omnivorous reader, Viv put her surplus admits to good use as book marks. This VIVacious girl was forever bubbling over with mirth.

ומה כשרון לבעליה כי אם ראות עיני (קהלת ה')

JUDITH JACOBSON

An avid ad collector, Judy worked industriously to aid the Elchanette. She is friendly . . . considerate . . . and cooperative.

ליועצי שלום שמחה (משלי י"ב)

SANDRA KATZ

Mr. Lilker's "Ketzeleh" vied with Gino Prado for $64,000 on Mr. Bassell's opera quiz. When it came to collecting money our "Alice in Wonderland" was tops.

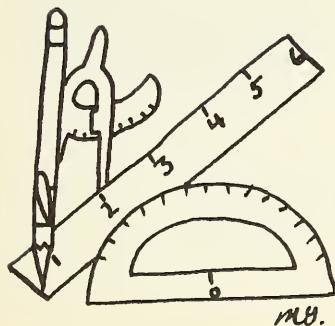

דרכיה דרכי נעם וכל נתיבותיה שלום (משלי ג')

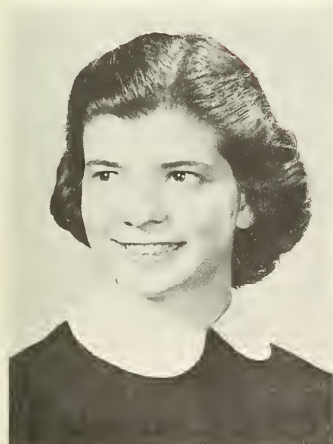

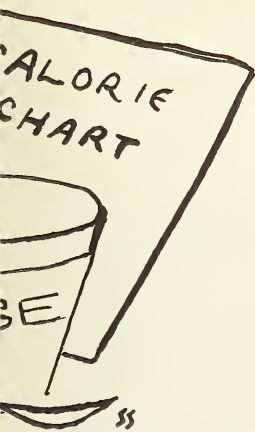

PHYLLIS KRESCH

Phyllis has invested millions in cottage cheese. Too bad her stock is going down. She's losing . . . all the time, while her personality is gaining her friends in leaps and bounds.

צדק צדק תרדף (דברים ט"ז)

TIRZAH LENT

Hollywood "lent" us Tirtz for a pleasant stay at Central. Mr. Steif's pet peeve, she had close connections at Y.U. California's loss was our gain.

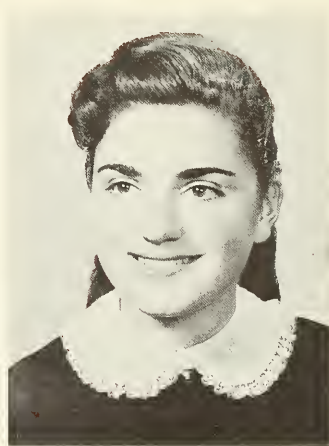

יפה את... כתרצה, נאה... (שיר השירים ו')

GEORGETTE MILLER

Georgette will long be remembered for her unique comments and startling questions. Her inquisitive nature and wit will surely lead her to success.

פה מפיך מרגליות (על פי קידושין ל"ט)

ESTHER NATHANSON

Esther's attractiveness and popularity brought her much due admiration. She certainly possesses all the excellent attributes of a true queen.

ותהי אסתר נשאת הן בעיני כל רואיה (אסתר ב')

MIRIAM NEUSTADTER

Nashing the day 'round had no adverse effects on this captivating sprite. Aside from her record addiction, dancing and shopping were Mimi's favorite pastimes.

הנך יפה בגמילות חסדים (שיר השירים רבה א')

MIRIAM NOMKIN

A transient member of our school, Miriam could not decide whether Bais Yaakov or Central was THE school for her. Impatiently waiting to go to Israel, she expressed her love for Aretz through melodious song.

לבי במזרח ואנכי בסוף מערב (ר' יהודה הלוי)

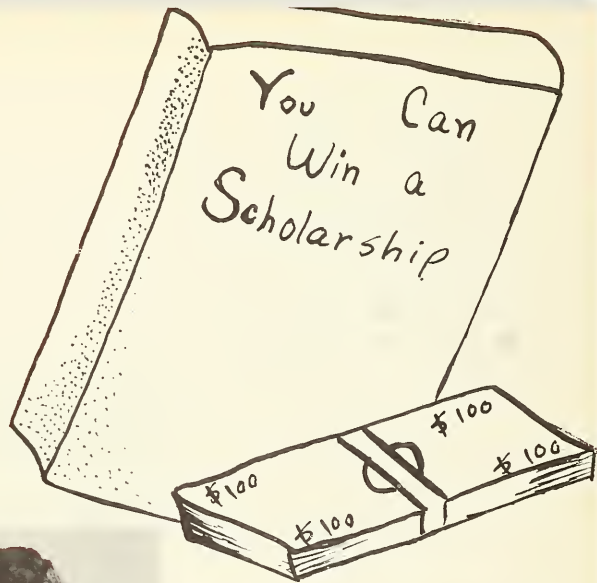

PEARL PARDES

A sense of humor combined with a care-free manner, Pearl kept us all in stitches with her frequent witticisms. As attested to by her name, she is a gem of a girl.

כמעין המלגבר (אבות ב')

HELEN PFLANZER

Take peaches and cream for complexion, mix with ebony color for hair, two dimples for chayn, a dash of azure for eyes . . . add them all together and . . . you have a wonderful recipe for a wonderful girl who makes beautiful corsages.

סייג לחכמה — שתוקה (אבות ז')

SANDRA SYLVIA PODOLEFSKY

Sandy, English Editor of the Elchanette, continuously wished for a large attendance at her pleasant Sunday afternoon gatherings. Mistakenly labeled a Bechina Dodger she was a top scorer in all fields. We're sure she'll sail her ship to the "Sandy" shores of success.

לחם עצלות לא תאכל (משלי ל"א)

JUDITH PREISER

Judy's warm manner charmed us all. Refined and sympathetic, she was our dispeller of gloom. Being a Sabra more than qualified her as Hebrew Editor of the Elchanette.

כל הבורח מן הגדולה, הגדולה תזרח אחריו (עירובין י"ג)

CAROL ROTH

As attractive as her drawings, Carol's rosy cheeks are the answer to every Dutchman's prayer. Cool, calm, and collected, she has many hidden talents,

סימן יפה לאדם שהוא ביישן (נדרים ב')

EUDICE ROTH

President of her class in the Senior year, Eudice maintained her placidness through all trying moments. Her spare time was spent as a busy member of the "knitting knot."

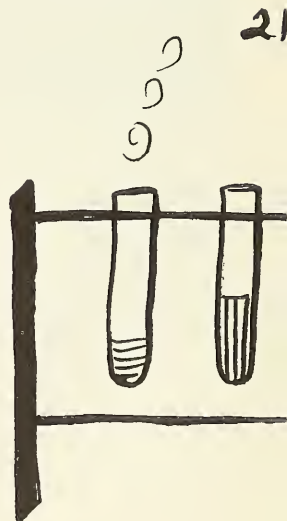

מענה רק ישיב חמה (משלי ט"ו)

CAROL MAE SAGER

A member of the going steady club, our graceful blond danced her way to popularity. Her feminine ways titled her Central's "Golden Girl."

הדר בני אדם כמותן (דרך ארץ וזמא י')

SARA SCHACHTER

Educated, talented, charm galore . . .
Pretty, exciting, need we say more?
Cy. 3-4774.

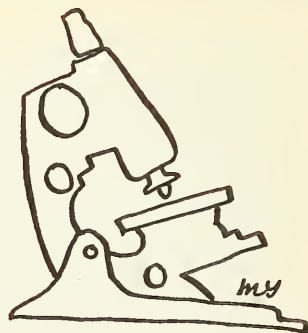

נאה דורש ונאה מקים (חניניה י"ד)

EVA SCHONFELD

As complete as the Congressional Records, Eva's notes contained everything from Archaeology to Rootafash, including pauses, sneezes, and other extraneous remarks. Her winning nature will long be remembered.

יפה תלמיד חורה עם דרך ארץ (אבות ב')

JOYCE SCHWITZER

Schwitz refused to give up chemistry and continued to experiment with thermodynamic reactions. All her stored-up knowledge hailed from the bookroom. Rapunzel won't you please let down your beautiful hair?

עשית ספרים הרבה אין קץ (קהלת י"ב)

MAHLKA SELIG

With her knowledge of history, Malkie more than once caused Mr. Lilker to wonder where she was in 1776. Another Bridie Murphy? With Malkie, one is assured of a true and loyal friend.

זכר ימות עולם בינו שנות דר ודר (דברים ל"ב)

SARA SERCHUK

Sara, our dimpled miss, is evidence enough that good things come in small packages. Her frequent debates with Mr. Hoffman "Spark"ed up life in Central. A whiz in chemistry with 99, she didn't lag behind in her other subjects.

תן להכם ויהכם עוד (משלי ט')

HELEN RINA STEIN

Helen's capable management of the Co-op brought it from obscurity (the basement) to prominence (the third floor). Her quiet ways and pleasant disposition are only two of her many fine qualities.

הוא המשכיר לכל עם הארץ (בראשית ט"ב)

SHULAMITH MARILYN STEIN

Shuly unraveled the teachers with her excellent knitting. Her looks proved the perfect accessory for her creations. She's knitted everything from coats to booties. Booties?

דרשה צמר ופשתים ותקש בהפזן בפיה (משלי ל"א)

HEATHER MARLENE STITZ

Heather personified the flower she was named for with her sweet and gentle ways. Her quick wit and good naturedness attracted many customers to the Co-op.

...ולענוים יתן חן (משלי ג')

ETHEL STOLNITZ

Ethel alcohol-rubbed shoulders with the big brass in Central. Active in all school affairs, she reached the ultimate goal . . . President of "all" two floors. Pride of the Seniors, her leadership encouraged us greatly.

כל המוכה את הרבים אין חסא בא על ידו (אבות ה')

לג בעמר

RACHEL SWERGOLD

"Une jolie jeune fille," Rachel brought to Central a continental touch. As radiant as a diamond, her many facets made her one of our favorites.

...סקבל את כל האדם בסבך פנים יפות (אבות א')

GITTY TABAK

Queen of the Crosswords, refusing to be stopped by a long word, Gitty would insert two letters in a box. A true Daughter of Yisroel, her love for learning inspired her classmates. Gitty's sweet manner endeared her to all.

אשה יראת ה' היא תהלהל (משלי ל"א)

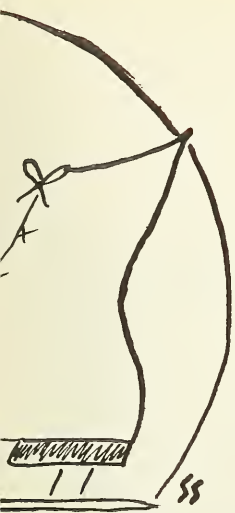

JUDITH TABORY

Judy rose from the ranks to become G.O. Treasurer although she joined our mixed up crew during her Junior year. Famous for reading Rashi better than Mr. Hoffman, she was an avid member of the Chug Ivri. Her exuberance was felt by all.

הפוך כה והפוך בה דכלה בה (אבות ה')

SALLY TROPPER

Sally captivated many a teacher with her warm smile and winning ways. Scholastic excellence and a bunch of maales made her top banana of Arista.

„אריסטאן“ לעדיקי יתקן ושריתא (אקדמית).

HARRIET SANDRA WAGH

Our lovely “china doll,” Harriet served the school as Secretary of the G.O. and Athletic Manager. Her warm smile and friendliness contributed to her success.

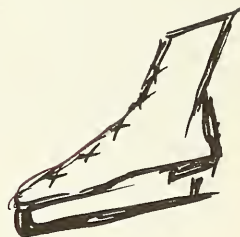

כמותך ירכו בישראל (יבמות ט"ז)

GLORIA JANE WALLIN

This versatile miss thrilled us all with her “glorious” voice. A perfect combination of looks and brains, her service made her an asset to the school.

כי קינך ערב וסראיך נאווה (שיר השירים ב')

BARBARA WEINSTEIN

Bubbling Barbara beat Bob Bassell by being best at the three tap Lindy. After a futile quest for freckle remover Blumie decided to keep them after all.

מפי עוללים ויונקים יסרת עין (תהלים ח')

LINDA WEINSTEIN

We all agree that Zehavah, with her golden neshama, deserves the title of "Rabbi Perlman's Ahuva." Linda, always on the ball, was an outstanding member of the Basketball Team.

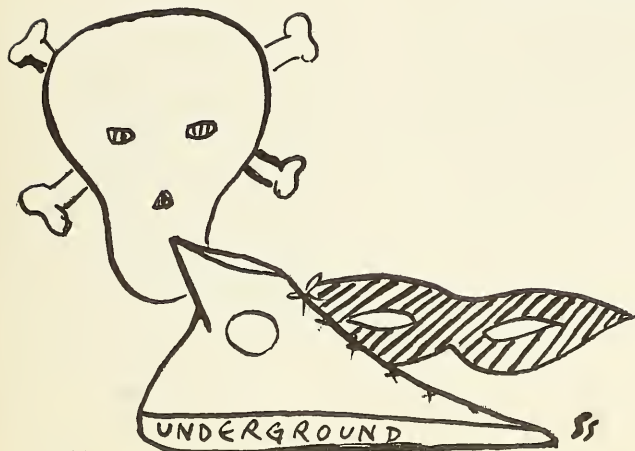

ותנערה טובת מראה מאד (בראשית כ"ד)

PERLA WEINSTOCK

Our Columbian gem, Perla, alias Pepi, gained the distinction of being the only girl with whom we could not find fault. Her intelligence and sweetness added much to our school.

יקרה היא מפנינים וכל חפציה לא ישוו בה (משלי ג')

CYNTHIA WEISBROD

Laughing her way through four years at Central, Cynthia disproved the adage that blondes are dumb. A fine actress, her talents were concealed in the Co-op while her friendly manner was displayed to all.

תקופות וניסיונות פרפראות לחכמה (אבות נ')

RUTH WEISS

Our hep Bronx senior could swing and jive to anything from Beethoven to Pat Boone. Rating tops with us all, Ruthie is a girl to remember as a sympathetic friend.

ושער ראשה כעמר נקא (דניאל ו')

HINDA WEISSLER

Gay and witty, Hinda always had a mischievous twinkle in her eye. Thanks to her there was never a dull moment in many an "interesting" class.

לב שפח ייטב פנים (משלי ט"ז)

BLUMI WOLF

Blumi possesses the ABC's . . . athletics, beauty, and common sense. As a star of the Basketball Team and Business Manager of the Elchanette she was one of our foremost Seniors.

דברים היוצאים מן הלב נכנסים אל הלב (מבחר פנינים)

MARILYN WURTZEL

Marilyn, with a pleasant smile, possesses both charm and a winning personality. Fondly admired by Mr. Weinstein, she was always on time for her job.

אהוב את השלום ושנא את המחלוקת (דרך ארץ ופסא ט')

EVELYN YUDIN

With her quiet ways and willingness to work Evelyn won her way to the voters' hearts. Continuously re-elected class President, only graduation saved her from another term.

חסר ואמת יקרמו פניך (תהלים פ"ט)

CHANY ZEIDMAN

Last but surely not least, Chany rates high with every Senior. Her jovial and carefree manner added much zest to our graduating class.

INTER-SCHOOL ACTIVITIES

Central is proud of being an active participant in inter-school activities. The Debating Team has long been recognized as being one of the best among the Yeshiva teams. It has won a number of debates and the newly instituted Junior Varsity shows much promise.

The famous Basketball Team has played against Yeshivas and other schools as well. The girls made an excellent showing on the court dressed in their chic outfits and raring to go. The games allowed for frequent gatherings between Central, Flatbush, H.I.L.I., and Ramaz, which brought the girls closer together.

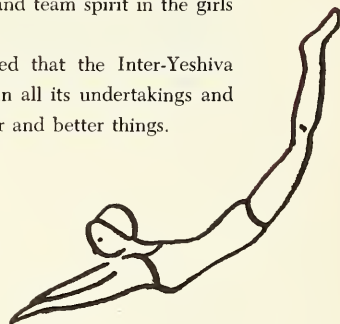

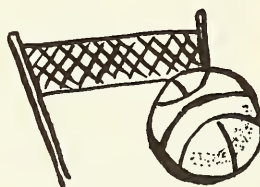

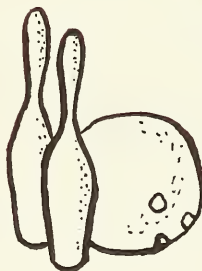

Several meetings were held this year between Central and her brother schools to discuss inter-Yeshiva topics. These meetings provided the opportunity to solve common problems and to adopt innovations that had proved successful in one of the other schools.

Similar to the Inter-Yeshiva High School Student Council, the boys' league, a new Inter-Yeshiva Girls' League has been formed. The first meeting, held at Flatbush Yeshiva, was truly inspiring. All agreed that the League would provide an excellent means of making the Yeshivas a more closely knit group.

The first field entered by this group was Inter-School Athletics. Central's Volleyball Team played a game against Flatbush in May and a swimming team is being organized. Some other teams that are planned for the future are bowling, softball, and tennis. Not only do these teams provide the athletic exercise that is so necessary, but they instill sportsmanship and team spirit in the girls as well.

It is sincerely hoped that the Inter-Yeshiva League will succeed in all its undertakings and will accomplish bigger and better things.

LIBRARY

A completely catalogued and orderly library headed by Sherry Reisman is the one room where peace reigns during lunch. Equipped with an excellent selection of both English and Hebrew fiction and reference books, the library plays a vital role in our school life. A new innovation for our library this year is the publication of "The Bookends," a bulletin offering many suggestions for future reading. As faculty adviser, Rabbi Perlman's help was invaluable to the library staff.

THE STRUGGLE FOR PEACE

"There was never a good war or a bad peace."

by SARA SERCHUK

BENJAMIN FRANKLIN, 1773

What is war but a barbaric relic of ancient times! Ever since Cain smote Abel, the world has witnessed an omnipresent struggle for survival. Man has so dedicated himself to becoming an expert at war that he has forgotten how to live in peace.

On August 6, 1945, when the Bomb-Bay doors were opened over Hiroshima, the point of no return was reached. Man had created the ultimate weapon, a Frankenstein, perhaps destined to destroy its creator. The dream of the prophets of a scientific civilization, Bacon and Descartes, that accumulation of scientific knowledge would automatically bring more human welfare, had taken on the ghostly distortions of a nightmare. Against such frightening eventualities our one hope lay in international organization. And so, the United Nations was formed.

Thus, the Second World War concluded with the advent of the deadliest of weapons and the Atomic Age began. In effect this war left only two great powers in the world, the United States and the Soviet Union. Characteristic of a two state system is that each super power knows in advance who its only dangerous enemy is. In such circumstances, all diplomatic delicacy must break down as each power tends to make allies of strategic lesser states. All measures that either of these takes for its security are provocations to the other. After the war, the U.S. and the U.S.S.R. fell into this unpleasant dualistic relationship . . . the struggle for survival persisted.

Today, a decade later, this unfortunate situation continues to exist in the form of a Cold War. Any American attempt to alter conditions is looked upon by the Communists as a plan whose ultimate end will be a victory for the Free World. The first blasts of Russian gunfire against the defenseless Hungarian rebels showed the world that the smiling Russian Bear is not yet ready to compromise. In these circumstances we remain wary when dealing with the Reds as we know that there has been no change in their fixed determination to dominate the world.

When a Middle Eastern nationalistic politician threw in with the Kremlin not so long ago, some western nations felt compelled to use force to restore the status quo. The Suez incident made us realize that the notion that the Atomic Age would bring an end to shooting wars by major powers was a foolish one. We are now even more determined not to loosen our grip on hope for a lasting peace.

In 1773, Benjamin Franklin wrote, "There was never a good war or a bad peace." The world has come a long way from 1773, but we must recognize the fact that Franklin's statement is as valid today as it was for the 18th century. The consequences of atomic warfare are evident and so we are groping for a solution which will remove the Sword of Damocles which threatens our existence. Perhaps, in the near future we will find the solution. Only time will tell.

Peace Of Mind

by ROSLYN FOGEL

How does man reach you
goal, sacred and true
Yearned for by all,
attained by so few
Cherished above all—
wealth, talent, fame,
Man's secret desire,
his everpresent aim.
There is a way,
as the wise may find,
Difficult surely,
almost divine.
Living a life
with Torah the guide,
The enlightened path
to a world so wide,
The G-d inspired gift,
the Untroubled Mind.

On this December afternoon I took my seven-month old niece for a stroll in her carriage. The air was warm and pleasant, and sweeping winds reminiscent of early autumn played games with our hair. We went to a small park which was beneath the hill that we descended. There I had to stop and catch my breath. Yaffa looked about her until the sun's glare proved uncomfortable and then she blinked, rubbed her eyes and buried her face in the blankets.

to the poor bird and I looked after it sympathetically. I wanted to help it. I had never held a pigeon before and I was afraid to do so now. I turned back through the park and started up the steep hill back to our house.

At first I couldn't understand what parallels I drew between the gruesome sight of the accident and the glaring headline of startling news. I desired to understand the true meaning of my association of the two.

An Afternoon In Brooklyn

by LEAH BACKMAN

About halfway between Lincoln Terrace Park and our house a lone pigeon stopped to rest. I brought down the brakes of the carriage and tried to call Yaffa's attention to this soft and graceful bird. My efforts were fruitless. She preferred examining her own fingers and hands to the anatomy of the bird. (How vain is woman!). But what happened the next moment made me thankful for Yaffa's preoccupation. A screeching truck had swiftly come around the bend. Instantly the pigeon fluttered under the gigantic body of the truck and then undiscerningly it sped by. Only a few crushed feathers pursued in protest of the fleeting steel monster. The wind gushed once more and whirled any loose object into the air. Soon the fury settled and a front page of the New York Post landed by the numb creature. I couldn't help but notice the very bold face headline which read: "IKE THREATENS SANCTIONS FOR ISRAEL." For a moment the motionless pigeon didn't concern me as I concentrated on the implications of the news item. But attention suddenly reverted back "Thoughts that breathe and words that burn," wrote Thomas Grey; it is that which compels me to write what I conceived of this incident.

Beware you remnants of Israel—you who have wandered into the desert and there have taken refuge. The trucks and tanks are gathering against you! They plan one day to run you down and pluck your feathers. The mighty bear will growl and the desert rat will screech. Will the passers-by all shrug their shoulders and continue on their way?

ALONE

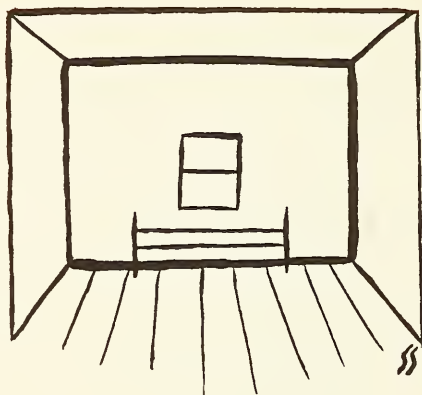

by JUDITH COHEN

Why do I punish myself; what's the use of everything? The odor of onions assails my nostrils and I can't breathe. The smell seems to get worse every minute. If it continues, I think I shall suffocate. No matter how I tug, the window is stuck and won't open . . . it makes me want to cry . . . what's the use?

I can't sleep. That hag down the hall cooks onions in order to afflict me. She knows how I hate it. She and all the rest in the courtyard.

Funny, how the paint keeps crackling. One crack is a silhouette and reminds me of a boat. That bobbing boat entering the bay. The water was a myriad of sequins and so blue it took my breath away. We were all there, laughing and gay and young, so very young. For me there existed only one . . . David, David how I miss and fear for you. I'm so lost, so frightened . . . I . . . I . . . must not break down, I must control myself! I can't continue living if I don't learn control. Oh G-d, what's the matter with me? That smell, that reeking smell. I can't even think of my beloved but that everything must press me, push me, and force me to face this harsh reality.

If you were only here, David! What plans I have for us. First I shall quit my hateful job. What revenge when I spit into that Nazi's face . . . I tremble now lest I be fired, without a work permit I'll be deported. Yes, we'll be so happy . . . married . . . and go far away . . . millions of miles away . . . far away, from these foul smells, this dingy hole, the aching loneliness . . . I'm so hungry, if only I could change my ration card. When I try hard I remember what it tastes like, what we used to eat. Sometimes meat or a fruit or a lovely pat of fresh butter. I fear to look in the mirror my beloved, I have grown so thin and gaunt. How angry you would be, David, if you should see me now. You'd go up to the supervisor and laugh in his face, take my hand and carry me off to feast and dance and be happy . . . That quiet little restaurant and Davy says to the fat little waiter. "Only the best for my darling, we're celebrating tonight." And every night was a celebration. I'm back there again so that every sense is tingling. The comfortable warmth and the lovely smells; David's tobacco and my perfume, the aroma of roasting meat and a simmering sweet dessert, the fresh clean tablecloth and a smoking candle . . . and . . . and . . .

Why do I fool myself? David has been taken away. I don't know . . . perhaps he is dead. I sit in my room; one bed, one table, one window—one alone. No future, only a past.

Who is that knocking at the door? Is it my David? No, of course not, you silly girl; they have come to take you away.

The golden beams looked down upon us,
Mother Earth gazed back a reply,
Now what was the tale the sun wished to convey
With its brilliant smile in the azure sky?

SURVIVAL

by GLORIA WALLIN

*It seemed to reflect life's poignant hardships,
Aggressor nations' greeds and lustful deeds.*

*Man's eternal struggle
so pitiful to behold,
Treachery and sinfulness
naked and bold.*

*Then suddenly a cold air
swept the earth,
The once radiant sun
lost all its mirth.*

*An icy darkness
descended from the sky,
Clouds of doom
seemed to flit from on high.*

*The glistening orb with its brilliant light
No longer shone,
the people took fright.*

*Was there still time for man to atone
Or in darkness and misery was he all alone?*

*And the blackness thickened
and the wind blew and blew,
Was this the day of reckoning or just a clue . . .*

*To what the tale was that the sun wished to convey,
With its blackout darkness
in the middle of the day?*

*Yes! It was bringing man to the test,
Survival or annihilation which one was best?*

*Would the dark overshadow
the light of day?
Would forgiveness and pity
pave the way?*

Then far off in the distance, a mighty gleam appeared
The hope in the heart was right,
G-d, in his wisdom forgave his poor sinners
The day of salvation dawned bright.

"החזון"

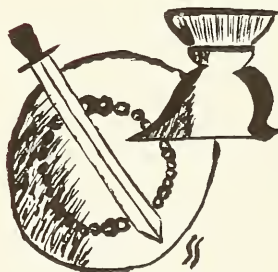

מאת חיה פלנצ'ר

אנה ואנה אנשים נחפזים,
לאליל הרם פניהם מכונים,
סמלם בעגל, משתהווים לפניו,
הכסף קורא לעבדיו.
"תורה לא נלמד, לא נתן צדקה,
את שכנינו נשנא, לשוא אהבה,
מה בצע במצוות", הם אומרים,
"לשקר נהנך את הבנים".

ובעצם כל ההשחתה
נשמעת בת קול מבקשת והומה:
"בני אדם, מה אתם עושים?
הלא את עצמכם אתם מהריבים!
מתי תדעו כי ה' הוא האלקים,
למה תשנאו איש את קרובו?
הלא כל איש נברא בצלמו —
בצלם אלקים.

למדו הכמה או תאחבו את כלם,
תלמידי חכמים מרבים שלום בעולם.
אל תרוצו אחרי הכסף
הוא מסלף את עיניכם,
ולמדו זאת לבניכם".
ואין קול ואין שומע,
הכל לשוא. והמוסר תובע.
האנשים חולכים בדרךם הקודם
איש באחיו ובשאריו לוחם,
ותעולם תולך ונקרע
והכל יורד ויורד ...
"והיה באחרית הימים ..."
ופתאם עולה עם קטן אחד,
עם שמלפנים היה משעבד.
עם הספר שמו,
עם מכיר ה' וכבודו.
בזכות העם הזה תיחד
יהיה שלום ואין מחריד.

בעולם השלום...

מאת חנה רובין

לשני על המאורע בשמים. ותרדנה הצפרים ארצה. ותצאנה ותתוכחנה החיות ביניהן והנה, העצים מזדעזעים ומשקטים את ילדיהם. כלם מכימים השמימה...

העננים נראים עתה כרשת. מבין הבקעים נראים ראשי הכוכבים העטורים כובע לבן. הרוח נושבת ונושם בחזקה. והנה הלובן שהיה על ראשי הכוכבים מתפשט ויורד כשלג הענן על כל העולם.

חילי ה' שנצחו בהתחרות יוצאים מבין העננים במתינות, אחד אחד, לאט, לאט, ועוברים למקומם הקבוע. שם הם עומדים בקומה זקופה וישרה, כילדים שעשו את מצות אביהם. מביטים הם בחדות על העננים. והנה העננים מרימים את ראשם וצוחקים בשלום.

הרוח עוד לא גמר את עבודתו, וירץ אל ההרים המכסים בשכבת טל דקה, וידפק על אחוריהם, ויאמר בלחש: "קומו חברי, הזמן הגיע".

הליל מרים את ידו אנה, ואנה, ומנהג אחריו את חילו העיף. ויתן הליל את שלמונו לעינים העליונות. ויצא היום מבין ההרים וישלוט בשלום...

היום עצם את עיניו העליונות, ויורד את ראשו על מורדות ההרים האפלים. והנה לאט, לאט, הליל הרים את ידו ויאחו בלבנה הזכה, וישימה ככפת השמים. ותוציא הלבנה את צעיף ענניה הלבן, ויתנופה הצעיף על כנפי הרוח. בחשאי, אורגים הרוח והעננים את דרכם באפלה...

פתאם, מהשמים העליונים, נשמע רשרוש קל. העננים רועדים בגיל, רומזים בעיניהם לרוח, ולוחשים לתוך אזנו... הרוח שואג וצוחק, והנה ילדי השחקים מכינים את עצמם למשחקם היום-יומי. הרוח מסתובב לכל הצדדים, מזהיר את העננים וקורא, "הכוכבים באים!"

העננים מתרבים במהירות ומתיצבים במערכה מול האויב. קול הרשרוש הולך וגדל, ונהפך למגנינה ערבה. והנה המלחמה! מצד אחד עומדים העננים והרוח המלאים בטחון, ומצד שני עומדים הכוכבים החרים.

הלבנה יוצאת בכל תקפה ומאירה את הסביבה. העצים הגבוהים מעוררים את הקטנים. הקטנים, מעוררים את הפרחים והעשבים השוכבים לרגליהם, והם, את הארמה והנמלים הקטנטנות. ויגידו האחד

שלום בלב כל אדם

מאת יהודית תבורי

האנושיות אינה אלא צרוף של עמים ואי אפשר שתעלה ביפה המוסרי על העמים היחידים היוצרים את קלסתר פניה. ברור הוא אפוא כי כבדי להשכין שלום בעולם על האדם לעשות שלום בנפשו, ושלום פרישו שלמות. לאמתו של דבר האדם עצמו הנתן שדה קרב. כוחות שונים ומגנדים נלחמים בתוכו מיום עמדו על דעתו. מחובת האדם ליצר הרמוניה בתוכו, לאחד את כל כוחות נפשו לשם המטרה האחת — תקון עולם במלכות שדי. והמכשיר הגדול שנתן לאדם לשם מלוי תפקיד גדול זה הוא תורת ה'. לא ככהו הוא יתגבר האדם על יצרו, אלא בכח האלקים שנתן לו לעזרתו. לא בהכמתו המוגבלת ישיביל להיטיב את דרכו עלי אדמות, אלא בהכמת העליונה העל-אנושיות. האמצעי היחידי לגרש את החשך הוא להדליק את אור ה' ולהאיר בו לארץ ולדרים עליה, כאמור: „נר לרגלי דבריד ואור לנתיבותי“.

אותו התפקיד המוטל על היחיד מוטל גם על העצור כלו. הדרך לשלמותו של היחיד היא הדרך לשלמותו של העצור. קשות הנה הדרכים המוליכות אל המטרה, אך גדולה היא המטרה וקדושה היא. כדאי הוא המאמץ של היחיד לשלום נפשו כי בשלומה שלום לאנושיות כלה. הרשע והזדון הם אמנם כטבעו של האדם — „יצר לב האדם רע מנעוריו“ — אולם גם האמצעים להתגבר עליהם נתן לו ה' כיד רחבה וברכה נדיבה, ככתוב „בראתי יצר הרע, בראתי לו תורה תכלין“.

מריבות ומכסוכים אינם אלא פרי מחלת נפשו של האדם. אך תכריא הנפש, והשלום יתבסס בארץ. תאוה ושרירות לב — מקורות המחלה, תורה ומצוה — סמי הרפואה.

הנבואה הנהדרת של ישעיהו על שלום עולמי תתגשם בשלמותה אך ורק לאחר התגשמות נבואתו שבפסוק הקודם לה, „כי מציון תצא תורה ודבר ה' מירושלים“.

„שלום שלום ואין שלום“, למן ישעיהו הנביא אשר נבא על אחרית הימים: „וכתתי חרבותם לאתים ותניתותיהם למזמרות, לא ישא גוי אל גוי חרב ולא ילמדו עוד מלחמה“, דרך שלשת אלפי דורות לא חדלו חסידי אומות העולם, אנשי האמת והחזון, מלהטיף לשלום ולהצביע על האכזריות שבמלחמת האחים, ואף על פי כן...

כותבי זכרונות, סופרים ומשוררים הרבו לתאר את מראות הזעזוע ואת הנכות הפראית שבשפיכת דמים, את הכאב הנורא, הצער העמוק, והסבל האינסופי הבאים בעקבות המלחמה. אולם אך לשוא דברו — עולם כמנתנו נוהג.

אין שום אומה ולשון יושבת לבטח בארצה. פחד תמידי מקנן בלב כל עם וגוול את מנוחתו. הרב המלחמה מתהפכת ושומרת על דרך עץ החיים... התגשמות הזון השלום הנצחי עודנה ממנו והלאה, ולמרות הכל עוד לא אבדה תקותנו לשלום עולמי, לאחרית הימים, לתקופה של „וגר ואב עם כבש“... ויסוד תקותנו — תורת ישראל!

החברה אינה אלא צבור של יחידים, ומן הנמנע שתעלה בצדקתה על היחידים המהווים אותה.

שלום בית

מאת

מלכה אייבאף ויהודית פרייזר

בספרו „שלום בית“ מתאר י. ל. פרץ תמונה אידיאלית ונשגבה. גבורי הספור, חיים הסבל ואשתו חנה, מתפרנסים בדחק ובצמצום אבל השמחה והחדווה שורים במעונם כי הם רוחשים אהבה ומסירות איש לרעהו. שאיפתו הנעלה של חיים היא שמקומה של אשתו האהובה יהיה על ידו. הוא לא ירשה, חלילה, שתשב להדום רגליו, אלא ירימנה וישבו שניהם יחדיו. בפיו של חיים הפשוט והתמים שם פרץ את ההכרה שהאשה תופשת מקום חשוב מאד בחיי המשפחה בעמנו.

הבית הוא היכל האשה ועליה להאציל עליו מעדינותה ומטוב-מעמדה. האורה והשמחה שבבית מקורם בעקרת הבית. היא היא המעודדת את בעלה ומסיעת על ידו לעסק בתורה. בעדינותה וברכותה היא משכינה שלום ושלווה בין בני ביתה, ובעת משכר היא מחזקת את רוח בעלה ובניה.

חנוך הבנים הוא תפקיד חשוב שמוטל על האם היהודיה. היא היא המשרישה בלב בניה יראת שמים ואהבה נאמנה לעם ישראל. היא היא המשרה יפי ואצילות על המועדים והשבתות; ואותו היפי עושה רשם עמוק בנפש ילדיה וקושרם קשר כל ינתק ליסודי היהדות. על ידי האשה היהודיה נמשכת שלשלת המסורת מדור לדור. תפקיד האשה הוא קדוש ורב-חשיבות, ולא לשוא קרא חיים הסבל את אשתו בשם מלאך אלקים.

דרכיה דרכי נעם וכל נתיבותיה שלום

מאת טובה שאבאק

כינת האדם לא תכיל את מושג „השלום המהלט“, ולכן אין כאל ידו להגשימו. למרות שאין ביכולתנו להגיע אל שיא פסגת השלום, נוכל להגיע למדרגה גבוהה אם נשמר את חקי התורה ומצוותיה, והיא תנהיגנו בדרך הישר והשלום. חכמינו ז"ל אמרו: „אם אין תורה אין דרך ארץ“. דרך ארץ, שהיא השומרת על השלום בהתנהגות האדם לזולתו, צריכה להיות לפי מושג התורה — אהרת לא תתקיים.

ארחות החיים עלי אדמות מובילים אותנו לנסיגות ולמכשולים שונים. בשאיפתם המפרזת להצליח ולהתעשר, יש כאלה שאינם עומדים בנסיגות החיים, אלא מתעטפים באדרת השנאה ומסירים מעליהם את פניני השלום והשלום. אוי לה לספינה שאבד קברניטה, ואוי לו לאיש שעזב את דרכי התורה.

את ערך השלום אפשר לראות עוד יותר בהתבוננו בתנאי נתינת התורה. מצאנו שהתורה נתנה לבני ישראל רק בשעה שהם היו מאחדים והשלום שרר ביניהם, ככתוב: „גדול הוא השלום, שבכל המסעות כתוב ויסעו, ויחנו — נוסעין במחלקת וחונן במחלקת. בזמן שבאו לסיני חנו חניה אחת, שנאמר: „ויהן שם ישראל“. אמר הקב"ה, הוואיל ושנאו ישראל את המחלקת ואהבו את השלום, הרי השעה שאתן להם את תורתך.

נמצא למדן, שכמו שתוצאות למוד וקיום התורה מביאים לידי שלום, כן נתיבותיה צריכים להיות סלולים בשלום כי „דרכיה דרכי נעם וכל נתיבותיה שלום“.

PURIM CARNIVAL

Despite the rainy weather there was a large turnout at our gala Purim Carnival. B.T.A.'s auditorium presented a gay and colorful picture to the eyes of the fun seekers.

There were games to be played, prizes to be won, and refreshments to be eaten. The success of this affair was due to the work of Adelle Rokeach and Sandra Polonsky carnival chairmen.

QUOTABLE QUOTES

Cynthia Weisbrod: "I'm too confused on the subject to make a statement."

Mr. Hoffman: "I'm pointing out the Rashis that we're skipping for I'm sure you'll want to look into them at home."

Dr. Beigelman: "We'll honor Vivian with this question as she visits us so infrequently."

Sandra Podolefsky: "As far as I'm concerned we don't need it, but I think it's absolutely necessary."

Anonymous teacher: "You too can be replaced by a dagesh."

Mr. Weinstein on passing notes in class: "We're playing Post Office here—but not your kind."

Leah Edelstein on hearing a most "interesting" lecture dared to confess: "I'm scared."

Most popular quote: "She's absent . . . ALL day."

SERVICE SQUAD

The Service Squad does a fine job keeping order and cleanliness throughout our building. Staircases are clearly marked "up" and "down" to avoid congestion in the halls. During lunch, Service Squad members are assigned to the various tables to make sure the lunchroom is kept clean.

At the beginning of the year a poster campaign for cleanliness was effectively conducted by Deanne Chill, head of the Service Squad.

SPARK

Where are all the news and views of Central's girls expressed? Where are their literary talents brought to the fore? Where can one find the "latest" on all Central teachers? In the Spark, of course, our monthly student newspaper. The Spark, headed by Sara Serchuk with Rivkah Teitz assisting, has been in publication for nine years.

Its aim has always been to give the students a means of expressing their feelings and outlooks on school life and other issues concerning them. The types of articles symbolize our experiences in Central—a quarter of the articles are serious, a quarter scholarly, and half of them humorous and just for fun.

STUDENT ADVISING

An integral part of student life is the need for the proper academic and social adjustment. The main functions of the Student Adviser have been to check carefully the scholastic progress of each student, to help orientate the Freshmen to the requirements of the Central program, and to steer the thoughts of the Upper-termers toward fruitful vocational and college careers. A library of vocational pamphlets and college catalogues has been started and is in constant use.

In addition, of course, Mr. Lilker's office has served as a clearing house for the general problems of the girls and has tried to find equitable solutions for all complaints.

X C E R P T S

Mr. Spin, anxious to please the Seniors, agreed to go up to Sarony for his yearbook photo. He subtly asked: "Shall I wear my tails?" A prominent member of the yearbook staff authoritatively stated: "No, leave your tail at home."

Mr. Bassell was eager for the Seniors to show the cultural knowledge they gained in his scholarship class. Before a big Saturday night he gave the girls an hour by hour program to follow for the evening. He advised: "Discuss music the first hour, art the second, and literature the third." A slightly peeved and puzzled Senior pleaded: "Can't we leave the last hour open?"

While discussing the marriage of Gloria Wallin's brother Mr. Lilker asked: "Where's my cigar?" A student replied: "She doesn't smoke." Quipped a second Senior: "Cigars."

After a Senior (illegally) filled out the attendance sheet Mr. Hoffman modestly remarked: "Here, I must write the shem hakodosh myself."

Mr. Weinstein is fond of proverbial phrases. One especially caught his fancy whereupon he remarked: "This sentence lends itself to bechina." Inquired a student: "Will you borrow it?"

At the beginning of a period which promised to be most vexing Rabbi Rabinowitz complained. "I'm getting sick here already." Agreed a Senior: "Me too!"
